

John Hampton

The True Cost of Disposable Filters

JOHN HAMPTON is the president of Filtration Technology Corporation, (FTC), Houston, TX, a company specializing in CUSTOM ENGINEERED SOLUTIONS for oil & gas, petrochemical, and environmental applications. Hampton, a graduate of Rice University, Houston, TX, has 25 years of experience in filter specification, testing, filter design, systems selection, and integrating filters with other unit operations. He has published several filtration articles and holds four U.S. patents involving filtration.