

Julie A. Graber

Product Development Manager

Cummins Filtration, Light Duty Automotive division

PO Box 708, 2150 Industrial Drive, Findlay, Ohio 45839-0708 USA

Phone: 419-425-7623 Fax: 419-423-8474

Email: Julie.A.Grabber@Cummins.com

- Julie Graber is Product Development Manager and a Cummins certified green belt in Design for Six Sigma. She is responsible for product research and technology, product and filter media development, and product testing.
- Julie received her Bachelor's of Science in Mechanical Engineering with Honors from The University of Toledo in 1994.
- Julie wrote and presented the technical paper "Presentation of a Standard Dust Capacity Test Method for Gasoline Vehicle Fuel Delivery Modules" at the 2005 SAE World Congress and the American Filtration Society's Fall 2005 Filter Testing Conference.
- She is co-inventor of three US patents and is a member of the Society of Automotive Engineers, the SAE Filter Test Methods Committee and the Product Development and Management Association. Julie is also an employer advisory committee member for the Millstream Career & Technology Center.
- In 2006, Julie was presented the Cummins Chairman's Quality Award for Six Sigma for her Design for Six Sigma work.
- Cummins Filtration, is a business unit within the Components Group of Cummins Inc. The Light Duty Automotive division is a global manufacturer of insert injection molded filters and paper cartridge filters for the automotive, industrial, and consumer product industries. Cummins Filtration is recognized globally as a leader in filter development and manufacturing.