

0039

Drinking Water Standards and Test Methods

Status: Accepted

Category: 2 Filter Testing

Susan Goldsmith

IBR, Grass Lake, MI, United States

Abstract: This paper will review the current standards and test methods for both home and municipal drinking water systems. We will cover the major NSF and EPA methods and guidelines, as well as selection of test conditions. We will demonstrate how to determine statistical confidence limits as well as method repeatability and reproducibility.

Specific methods covered will be the NSF 42, NSF 53, NSF 58, and the EPA LT2 guidelines.