

Inside Sales / Application Engineer

Duties: Assist domestic and international customers with quotations, product selection, order entry and application assistance. Work with production/shipping on scheduling, inventory and shipping requirements. Assist with marketing initiatives including literature, website content, webinars, trade shows, ECT. Work on new product development and testing procedures. Some travel may be required.

Company: Delta Pure is a growing manufacturer located in Ashland, VA, just outside Richmond. The company was established in 1983 and is involved in the water and liquid filtration industry. Delta Pure manufactures cartridge filters, systems and accessories for water and various process fluids. Users of our products include industrial manufacturing companies, municipalities, commercial facilities and residential. Products are sold through distributors and OEM's domestically and internationally. International sales make up approximately 40% of the company's business.

Compensation: Salary based on level of relative experience. Performance based Bonus. Health Insurance is 75% company paid. Life insurance provided. Company sponsored Retirement Plan with company matching contributions. AFLAC and Delta Dental are available.

Requirements: Customer driven with ability to work in a collaborative environment. Good computer/software skills. Technical degree or background. Engineering degree and Liquid Filtration experience a plus.

Contact: Todd Furbee, tfurbee@deltapure.com

Website: www.deltapure.com