

AFS Committees

Marketing and Communications – Chair, Felicia Littlejohn

Shall develop and oversee programs and activities to promote the Society to the filtration and separations industries and communicate with and promote the Society's activities and programs to our membership with the industry at large. This will include the management of the AFS newsletter, website, press releases and related activities.